Update re Notice of Results
& Investor Presentation

Westminster Group Plc (AIM: WSG), a leading supplier of managed services and technology-based security solutions, now expects to announce its results for the 12 months to 31 December 2022 before the end of May. The slight delay is due to time pressures in completing the audit and no material adverse changes from previous market expectations are anticipated.

The Company will provide notice of the results date, once confirmed by its Auditors, together with the date for a presentation to review the results and update on prospects on the Investor Meet Company platform.
