THE CONYGAR INVESTMENT COMPANY PLC
Planning approved for bioscience development
at The Island Quarter, Nottingham

The Conygar Investment Company PLC ("Conygar") is pleased to announce that Nottingham City Council has approved its detailed application for the next phase of The Island Quarter development in Nottingham. The application comprises a 23,123 sq.m. (249,000 sq.ft.) bioscience building, which includes both laboratory and office space. The permission is subject to the documenting of the section 106 agreement.

Robert Ware, Chief Executive of Conygar, commented:

"We are delighted that the next phase of development has been approved. Nottingham is already home to a large number of exciting businesses in the bioscience space and this scheme will be an excellent addition to the mixed-use development we are creating at The Island Quarter".
