MALVERN INTERNATIONAL PLC
("Malvern" or the "Company")

Contract extension

Malvern International plc (AIM: MLVN), the global learning and skills development partner, is pleased to announce a contract extension with the University of East London ("UEL") for the teaching and recruitment of students into UEL's International Study Centre to the end of the 2024/25 academic year.

UEL's International Study Centre has welcomed its biggest intake of c450 students in September 2023, and is set for further year-on-year growth in the January 2024 intake and over the coming years as we build on our sales and marketing efforts and continue to provide high-quality foundation and pre-university education to international students.

Richard Mace, Chief Executive Officer, said: "This latest development is testament to the significant success we are having in growing UEL's international student offering, while we continue discussions for a longer-term contract. The contract extension is in addition to our recruitment partnerships with UEL to increase the number of international undergraduate and post-graduate students enrolled across the university."
