Iman Hill's presentation outlined recent key developments in progressing the Walton Morant licence.

United Chief Executive Officer, Brian Larkin commented:

"We are delighted to share the video of Iman Hill presentation from our recent Investor Evening at the Jamaican High Commission in London. Iman's extensive global expertise in the technical and commercial aspects of the petroleum business have been invaluable in driving the project forward. I strongly urge all shareholders and potential investors to watch the video.

We continue to focus on the momentum that we are gaining with the Jamaican farmout process and look forward to updating the market on this in due course. We are in active engagement with multiple potential partners to secure a farm-out agreement, leveraging the project's significant resource potential and favourable economic terms."
