Sound Energy plc
("Sound Energy" or the "Company")

Proposed Adjournment of Annual General Meeting

Sound Energy, the transition energy company, announces that it will be seeking consent from its shareholders, in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association, to adjourn its annual general meeting (the "AGM") which is scheduled to be held at 1:00pm today to provide certain of the Company's shareholders with a significant number of Sound Energy shares sufficient time to revise their AGM proxy votes which they have advised the Company have been filed in error.

Provided that consent is given by shareholders to adjourn the AGM the Company will announce later today the date and venue of the adjourned meeting. Proxies already submitted will remain valid for the new date of the AGM unless superseded by a new proxy.

Shareholders who wish to attend the proceedings of the proposed adjournment of the AGM online should register for the meeting in advance via the following Investor Meet link:
