About Rosebank

Rosebank is a newly incorporated company established to acquire businesses whose performance the Directors believe can be improved so as to create shareholder value. The Rosebank Co-Founders were previously leading members of the senior management team of Melrose, a FTSE100 company which is listed on the London Stock Exchange.

Since being founded in 2003, Melrose created significant shareholder value through its 'Buy, Improve, Sell' strategy, under the leadership of the Rosebank Co-Founders^[1].

With Melrose becoming a highly successful pureplay aerospace group, positioned to deliver further profitable growth, two of the three original Melrose co-founders (being Simon Peckham and Christopher Miller)^[2], and four other leading members of its senior management team (being Matt Richards, Joff Crawford, Jim Slattery and Geoff Morgan) now intend to recreate the same successful 'Buy, Improve, Sell' business model which they pursued at Melrose, within Rosebank.

The success enjoyed by Melrose under the leadership of this team is demonstrated by its performance, having created over £6 billion^[3] of shareholder value through its 'Buy, Improve, Sell' strategy. Members of this team led all of Melrose's acquisitions and the successful implementation of its strategy since its establishment in 2003, more than doubling invested equity in all its acquired businesses and returning capital to shareholders.

The Rosebank Co-Founders have extensive experience of identifying and evaluating acquisition opportunities, quoted and unquoted, both in the UK and overseas. The Directors believe that the Rosebank team's track record will enable them to quickly identify appropriate acquisition opportunities.

The Rosebank team will look to acquire undervalued and underperforming companies with strong underlying fundamentals but scope for operational improvement and work alongside management teams of target companies to drive sustainable long-term performance for the benefit of all the Company's stakeholders.

Information to distributors

Solely for the purposes of the product governance requirements of Chapter 3 of the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (the "UK Product Governance Requirements"), and/or any equivalent requirements elsewhere to the extent determined to be applicable, and disclaiming all and any liability, whether arising in tort, contract or otherwise, which any "manufacturer" (for the purposes of the UK Product Governance Requirements) may otherwise have with respect thereto, the Ordinary Shares have been subject to a product approval process, which has determined that the Ordinary Shares are: (i) compatible with an end target market of retail investors and investors who meet the criteria of professional clients and eligible counterparties, each as defined in Chapter 3 of the FCA Handbook Conduct of Business Sourcebook; and (ii) eligible for distribution through all permitted distribution channels (the "Target Market Assessment"). Notwithstanding the Target Market Assessment, "distributors" (for the purposes of the UK Product Governance Requirements) should note that: the price of the Ordinary Shares may decline and investors could lose all or part of their investment; the Ordinary Shares offer no guaranteed income and no capital protection; and an investment in the Ordinary Shares is compatible only with investors who do not need a guaranteed income or capital protection, who (either alone or in conjunction with an appropriate financial or other adviser) are capable of evaluating the merits and risks of such an investment and who have sufficient resources to be able to bear any losses that may result therefrom. The Target Market Assessment is without prejudice to any contractual, legal or regulatory selling restrictions in relation to the Placing. Furthermore, it is noted that, notwithstanding the Target Market Assessment, the Joint Bookrunners will only procure investors who meet the criteria of professional clients and eligible counterparties.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Target Market Assessment does not constitute: (a) an assessment of suitability or appropriateness for the purposes of Chapters 9A or 10A respectively of the FCA Handbook Conduct of Business Sourcebook; or (b) a recommendation to any investor or group of investors to invest in, or purchase, or take any other action whatsoever with respect to the Ordinary Shares.

Each distributor is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Ordinary Shares and determining appropriate distribution channels.
