Non-Executive Chair to step down

Big Technologies plc, the UK-based remote people monitoring technology company, announces that its Independent Non-Executive Chair, Mr Simon Collins, has tendered his resignation from office as Chair of the Company.

The Company thanks Mr Collins for his years of integral leadership through the Initial Public Offering on the AIM market in 2021 and the continued success of the business. The Company wishes him every success in his future endeavours.

Commencement of the recruitment of a new Independent Non-Executive Chair to guide the Company through the next stage of its ambitious growth will begin immediately and in the meantime, Independent Non-Executive Director, Alexander Brennan, has assumed the role of Interim Chair of the Company.
