RA INTERNATIONAL GROUP PLC
("RA International", "RA" or the "Company")
New Contract Award

RA International Group PLC (AIM: RAI), a leading specialist in delivering complex and integrated remote site services to organisations globally, is pleased to announce that it has been awarded a new contract with the United Nations Support Office in Somalia ("UNSOS") (the "UNSOS Contract").

The three-year contract (with two additional option years), valued between USD 32m and USD 36m in aggregate over the five-year period, will commence immediately, and has contributed to the Company doubling its Order Book in Q3 2024. RA International will provide Pest and Vector Control and Ground Maintenance Services across nine locations in Somalia. The Company has held the contract for Pest and Vector Control Services since 2017, and the new contract, now including Ground Maintenance Services, reaffirms its position as a trusted quality partner to the UN, strengthening its long-standing relationship with the client.

Soraya Narfeldt, Chief Executive Officer, said: "Following on from the recently announced MOD contract, the UNSOS contract win highlights RA's exciting momentum. It has contributed to the Company doubling its Order Book in Q3 2024, providing long term security and revenue visibility. We are delighted to extend our support to UNSOS for another five years as they continue their efforts in Somalia."
