

GALLIFORD TRY APPOINTED TO £88.9M SOUTH EAST AYLESBURY LINK ROAD CONTRACT

Galliford Try, the UK construction group, announces that its Infrastructure business has been appointed to a contract worth £88.9 million to complete the South East Aylesbury Link Road (SEALR) project on behalf of Buckinghamshire Council.

The SEALR project will see the construction of 1.1 miles of dual carriageway including three new roundabout junctions, linking the A413 Wendover Road with the Stoke Mandeville Relief Road, and easing congestion in the centre of the town.

Bill Hocking, Chief Executive of Galliford Try, commented: "The Local Authority sector is a key focus for our Infrastructure business, and we have strong track record in constructing major link roads throughout the country. We look forward to working with Buckinghamshire Council to deliver the high-quality infrastructure that will make a real difference to the local community."
