Mulberry Group plc ("Mulberry" or the "Company")

Statement regarding revised possible offer from Frasers Group plc

The board of directors of Mulberry (the "Board") notes the announcement from Frasers Group plc ("Frasers") on 11 October 2024 regarding its revised possible cash offer for the entire issued and to be issued share capital of the Company not already owned by Frasers, at 150 pence per Mulberry share (the "Revised Possible Offer").

The Board also notes the press statement by Challice Limited, the Company's 56.4 per cent. majority shareholder, on 13 October 2024 stating publicly, amongst other things, that it "has no interest in either selling its Mulberry Shares to Frasers or providing Frasers with any irrevocable or other undertaking".

In light of the above, the Board is working with advisers to consider the Company's position and will provide a further announcement in due course.

The Board highlights that there can be no certainty that an offer will be made for the Company nor as to the terms on which any such offer might be made.

In accordance with Rule 2.6(a) of the Code, Frasers must by no later than 5.00 p.m. (London time) on 28 October 2024 (or such later time and/or date as may be agreed by the Takeover Panel (the "Panel")), either announce a firm intention to make an offer for Mulberry in accordance with Rule 2.7 of the Code, or announce that it does not intend to make an offer for Mulberry, in which case such announcement will be treated as a statement to which Rule 2.8 of the Code applies. The deadline will only be extended with the consent of the Panel in accordance with Rule 2.6(c) of the Code.

Mulberry is considered to be in an "offer period" as defined in the Code and the attention of Mulberry shareholders is drawn to the dealing disclosure requirements of Rule 8 of the Code, which are summarised below.

Dealing disclosure requirements of the Code:

Under Rule 8.3(a) of the Code, any person who is interested in 1 per cent. or more of any class of relevant securities of an offeree company or of any paper offeror (being any offeror other than an offeror in respect of which it has been announced that its offer is, or is likely to be, solely in cash) must make an Opening Position Disclosure following the commencement of the offer period and, if later, following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified.

An Opening Position Disclosure must contain details of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s). An Opening Position Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(a) of the Code applies must be made by no later than 3.30 p.m. (London time) on the 10th business day following the commencement of the offer period and, if appropriate, by no later than 3.30 p.m. (London time) on the 10th business day following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. Relevant persons who deal in the relevant securities of the offeree company or of a securities exchange offeror prior to the deadline for making an Opening Position Disclosure must instead make a Dealing Disclosure.

Under Rule 8.3(b) of the Code, any person who is, or becomes, interested in 1 per cent. or more of any class of relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror must make a Dealing Disclosure if the person deals in any relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror. A Dealing Disclosure must contain details of the dealing concerned and of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror, save to the extent that these details have previously been disclosed under Rule 8 of the Code. A Dealing Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(b) of the Code applies must be made by no later than 3.30 p.m. (London time) on the business day following the date of the relevant dealing.

If two or more persons act together pursuant to an agreement or understanding, whether formal or informal, to acquire or control an interest in relevant securities of an offeree company or a securities exchange offeror, they will be deemed to be a single person for the purpose of Rule 8.3 of the Code.

Opening Position Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company and by any offeror and Dealing Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company, by any offeror and by any persons acting in concert with any of them (see Rules 8.1, 8.2 and 8.4 of the Code).

Details of the offeree and offeror companies in respect of whose relevant securities Opening Position Disclosures and Dealing Disclosures must be made can be found in the Disclosure Table on the Takeover Panel's website at www.thetakeoverpanel.org.uk, including details of the number of relevant securities in issue, when the offer period commenced and when any offeror was first identified. You should contact the Panel's Market Surveillance Unit on +44 (0) 20 7638 0129 if you are in any doubt as to whether you are required to make an Opening Position Disclosure or a Dealing Disclosure.
