Atalaya Mining Plc.
("Atalaya" or "the Company")

Final Court Approval in Relation to Re-domiciliation

Atalaya Mining Plc (LSE: ATYM) is pleased to announce an update in relation to its planned re-domiciliation from the Republic of Cyprus to the Kingdom of Spain. The Nicosia District Court in Cyprus has approved the Company's application and has issued the pre-conversion certificate (the "Certificate").

The issuance of the Certificate is the final approval required from the Cypriot Public Administration. The Certificate will now be transmitted to Spain to complete the necessary administrative procedures required for the formal registration of the Company in Spain. These final steps are expected to be completed in the coming weeks.

About Atalaya Mining Plc

Atalaya is a European copper producer that owns and operates the Proyecto Riotinto complex in southwest Spain. Atalaya's shares trade on the London Stock Exchange's Main Market under the symbol "ATYM".

Atalaya's operations include the Cerro Colorado open pit mine and a modern 15 Mtpa processing plant, which has the potential to become a central processing hub for ore sourced from its wholly owned regional projects around Riotinto, such as Proyecto Masa Valverde and Proyecto Riotinto East. In addition, Atalaya has a phased earn-in agreement for up to 80% ownership of Cobre San Rafael S.L., which fully owns the Proyecto Touro brownfield copper project in the northwest of Spain, as well as a 99.9% interest in Proyecto Ossa Morena.
