Leadership Team appointments

Strengthened team to underpin strong growth trajectory and strategic plans

Filtronic plc (AIM: FTC), the designer and manufacturer of products for the aerospace, defence, space and telecoms infrastructure markets, announces two senior appointments to its leadership team, further strengthening the Company as it continues its growth trajectory.

David Marshall has been appointed as Director of Programmes, while Sarah Shaw joins as General Counsel. These appointments follow the recent addition of Antonino Spatola as Chief Commercial Officer, consolidating a leadership team with significant industry expertise to support Filtronic's ambitious strategic plans.

Global manufacturing experience

David Marshall brings extensive experience to his role as Director of Programmes. He will oversee Filtronic's portfolio of critical projects, ensuring the delivery of strategic goals while supporting the growing demand from key sectors such as Defence and Space. David previously held senior positions at Leonardo, most recently serving as Vice President, Typhoon Radar Development.

Sarah Shaw, as General Counsel, will lead the Company's legal affairs, with a focus on managing major commercial contracts and legal strategies. Sarah brings a proven track record in delivering complex commercial agreements and joins from Teledyne.

Nat Edington, Chief Executive Officer of Filtronic, commented: "We are thrilled to welcome David and Sarah to Filtronic. Their expertise and leadership will be instrumental as we continue scaling the business and delivering innovative RF and mmWave solutions for our customers. Alongside Antonino Spatola, these appointments position us for long-term success, and we are excited about the opportunities ahead for our team and our stakeholders. Having recently highlighted that we are trading ahead of expectations, we are focused on building on the strong momentum with existing and new clients - and are ensuring we have the team in place to capitalise on the growing opportunity."
