

Sound Energy plc
("Sound Energy" or the "Company" and together with its subsidiaries the "Group")

Directorate Change

Sound Energy (AIM: SOU), the transition energy company, announces that Mohammed Seghiri, the Company's Chief Operating Officer, has resigned as a director of the Company with immediate effect and will leave the full-time employment of the Group by mutual agreement on 31st March 2025.

Following the completion of the Group's sale of Sound Energy Morocco East Limited to Managem SA ("Managem"), Mr. Seghiri will be taking up full time employment with Managem - in doing so supporting the uninterrupted transition of the operatorship of the Tendirara Production Concession in which Sound Energy retains a 20.0% working interest and the Exploration licences where Arran Energy Holdings a Sound subsidiary holds 27.5%.

Graham Lyon, Executive Chairman of Sound Energy, commented:

Sound would like to thank Mohammed for his 8 years of service with Sound. He has achieved significant success in taking the Tendirara discovery through development and now, with Managem, to production later this year. A very notable achievement. We are pleased he remains with the Tendirara activities and look forward to continuing our close co-operation.
