Corporate Update - Strategic Growth Initiatives

Sealand Capital Galaxy Limited [LSE: SCGL] ("Sealand" or the "Company") is pleased to provide a corporate update, highlighting the latest strategic developments in EVOO AI PLC, a company in which Sealand has made a strategic investment and with whom it has partnered on the SEA-VOO AI ASIA initiative.

As EVOO AI PLC continues to expand its AI-driven luxury e-commerce platform, Sealand remains committed to supporting the technological and commercial advancements that will drive value for both companies and their stakeholders.

EVOO AI PLC Secures Global Trademark for Olive

Sealand is pleased to announce that EVOO AI PLC has successfully obtained trademark protection for the Olive brand and logos in key global jurisdictions, including Australia, Canada, China, the United Kingdom, the European Union, and the United States, under Classes 9, 35, and 42.

This critical milestone strengthens EVOO's ability to protect the integrity of its brand, technology, and business model, reinforcing Sealand's confidence in the long-term growth potential of EVOO's AI-driven marketplace. The Olive trademark covers the core areas of EVOO's business:

- Class 9 - Digital goods, software, and AI-powered applications that power EVOO's proprietary platform.
- Class 35 - Luxury e-commerce, marketplace operations, and digital commerce services.
- Class 42 - AI-driven consumer insights, data analytics, and technology development.

By securing global intellectual property protection, EVOO ensures that its brand partners, influencer partners, and customers are safeguarded against unauthorized use and fraudulent activities. While no trademark offers absolute protection, this step gives EVOO the legal framework to defend its platform and uphold its reputation as a leader in AI-powered luxury retail and media.

Dr. Thomas Sawyer, CEO of Sealand Capital Galaxy, commented:

"Sealand's investment in EVOO AI PLC was made with a vision for long-term growth, and the successful trademark registration of Olive is a major step in ensuring the security, exclusivity, and global scalability of the platform. With this protection now in place, EVOO can confidently roll out marketing programs and deepen brand and influencer partnerships, positioning Olive for continued expansion in the luxury e-commerce space. This milestone further solidifies our confidence in EVOO's strategic vision and execution."

Strategic Development Partner Search Nears Completion

Sealand has been actively supporting EVOO AI PLC in its global search for a strategic development partner, a crucial step in advancing the SEA-VOO AI ASIA initiative.

The selection process has been guided by strict criteria, with an emphasis on:

- Fintech platform development, ensuring secure and scalable transactional capabilities.
- Consumer engagement expertise, leveraging AI-driven insights to enhance personalized user experiences.
- Localization experience, with a focus on adapting platforms for regional markets.
- Proven track record in APAC and European markets, ensuring seamless integration with SEA-VOO's expansion strategy.

The search is progressing towards its final stages, and an announcement on the selected partner will be released in due course.

Sealand and EVOO: A Strengthening Partnership

Sealand's investment in EVOO AI PLC and its collaboration on SEA-VOO AI ASIA highlight its commitment to investing in cutting-edge technology and AI-driven consumer platforms. As EVOO continues to scale and enhance its platform, Sealand remains deeply involved in its strategic execution, ensuring that SEA-VOO will deliver a best-in-class luxury e-commerce experience for the APAC region.
