Approvals received from the Philippines Bureau of Fire Protection & Qatar Civil Defence

LifeSafe (AIM: LIFS), a fire safety technology business with innovative fire extinguishing and prevention fluids and fire safety products, is pleased to announce that through its distribution partner, Lingjack Engineering Works Pte Ltd ("Lingjack"), a substantial Asian fire safety business located in Singapore, approvals have been received from the Philippine Bureau of Fire Protection and Qatar Civil Defence for the Company's fire extinguishing cylinder which features LifeSafe's unique Thermal Runaway Fluid ("TRF") engineered to effectively extinguish lithium-ion battery fires and prevent reignition.

Dominic Berger, Chairman of LifeSafe, commented: "Accreditation for new products within the global fire industry is a complex and lengthy process. We are delighted to have received approval for our new TRF cylinders for sale within the very significant territories of the Philippines and Qatar to address the increasing risks related to lithium-ion battery fires and we look forward to further global accreditations in due course."

Kenneth Lim, CEO of LingJack, commented: "The demand for an effective, environmentally friendly solution to combat the unique challenges of extinguishing lithium-ion battery fires is very substantial, and with LifeSafe's unique fluid, combined with our high quality cylinder and service support, we are looking forward to continued approvals and launches in numerous new territories."

About LifeSafe

LifeSafe is a fire safety technology business that develops eco-friendly, novel and innovative fire extinguishing and prevention fluids and life-saving fire safety products. LifeSafe has developed a market disrupting range of eco-friendly fire safety protection products; a new patent-pending Thermal Runaway Fluid to combat lithium battery fires by permanently extinguishing and preventing re-ignition, and the StaySafe All-in-1, a handheld eco-friendly and fully recyclable extinguisher which is verified to extinguish ten different types of fire. LifeSafe is successfully creating new markets for the Group in fire safety through its innovative technologies, products, digital marketing and multi-channel sales; and is continuing to develop new fluid derivations for applications in various industrial market sectors.

LifeSafe was admitted to trading on AIM in July 2022 with the ticker LIFS.
