VietNam Holding Limited ("VNH" or the "Company")

Estimated Daily Net Asset Value (NAV)

The U.S retaliatory trade tariffs came into effect today, with Vietnam's levy at 46% and China's at an eye-watering 104%.

There has been a sharp war of words between the US and China. Yesterday, Chinese authorities described the US actions as 'Hegemony in the name of reciprocity - typical bullying'. Vice President JD Vance called the Chinese 'peasants'.

Vietnam, on the other hand is being more diplomatic, with trade envoys and government leaders in meetings with US government and private sector leaders, following on from calls made by the General Secretary of Vietnam at the weekend offering 0% tariff on US imports. It is understood that a wide range of meetings are being held to talk about US aircraft purchases, and other deals.

While the encouraging efforts continue, the tariffs have formally arrived, and so the market in Vietnam has softened again, albeit by only 3.4% today. The Net Asset Value (NAV) per share of the Fund has also declined by an estimated 3.9%.

The Company announces that, at its close of business on 09 Apr 2025, its Estimated NAV was USD 94.5 million or USD 4.019 per share and GBP 73.8 million or GBP 3.139 per share (GBP/USD = 1.2805).
