Pre-Close Trading Update

FY25 performance in line with guidance

Naked Wines is today pleased to provide a pre-close trading update in respect of the 12 months ended 31 March 2025 (‘FY25’), ahead of reporting audited FY25 results in the summer*.

The Group’s FY25 performance continued to track in line with management’s expectations, and as such Naked Wines will report results in line with the previously communicated guidance (reiterated at the bottom of this announcement).

Revenue of circa £250m reflects consistent delivery of management’s expectations across all markets.

Underlying EBITDA excluding inventory liquidation will be within the guidance range. As previously communicated, due to the actions to speed up releasing capital from inventory, inventory liquidation costs will be at the top end of the guidance range, but this benefits cash in FY25 and beyond.

Net Cash of £31m in constant currency (£30m actual FX) is towards the top-end of the guidance range; it also reflects in excess of £2m of early payments at the end of March 2025 resulting in lower costs in FY26.

As communicated within the New Strategic Plan announcement in March 2025, the Group is focused on finalising a near-term limited distribution policy in conjunction with its financial partners, and hopes to be in a position to provide an update shortly.

At the time of the FY25 results in the summer, the Group will provide guidance for FY26 as well as updates on areas of its New Strategic Plan.

This update contains unaudited financial information subject to final audit review.*
