  - Strong free cash flow, up 55% on prior year to c.£19.4m (2024: £12.4m), better than expected
  - Cash generation has funded c.£9.3m of acquisition and earn out payments, c.£1.5m of share buybacks and c.£6.3m of dividend payments in the year, whilst returning to a net cash position at 30 April

Double digit revenue growth with strong H1 margins maintained in H2 across both divisions

- Business recovery and advisory - c.11% revenue growth (all organic) across the division with H2 margins maintained at H1 levels of c.26%
  - Increased year on year insolvency activity levels in higher value cases:
    - Market-leading position maintained (by volume of appointments)
    - Increased fee pipeline on appointed cases underpins continuing growth in FY26
    - Expanded team through organic recruitment and the additions of White Maund and West Advisory, which have integrated well into existing offices
  - Strong growth in advisory income reflecting recent investment and senior hires:
    - National and international restructuring projects
    - Increased special situations M&A fees mitigated a weak corporate finance market in Q4
    - Strong year for funding solutions with increased completions across both real estate and asset finance projects
    - Expansion of the team with senior hires across forensics, debt advisory, restructuring and financial advisory, which positions the team well for further growth
  - 9% increase in divisional headcount to 798 at 30 April 2025 (2024: 732)
- Property advisory and transactional services - revenue growth of c.15% (7% organic) with margins in H2 maintained at H1 levels of c.17%
  - Driven by both continuing organic development and the full year impact of prior year M&A
  - Strong growth in property auctions reflects the benefits of investment in recent years including:
    - Increased geographic coverage across the midlands and north of England
    - Scale of offering and enhanced business development continues to drive growth in lot numbers across both commercial and residential sales
  - Development of service offerings, including public sector sustainability and decarbonisation, which has secured an order book of instructions from tenders won in the financial year
  - Senior hires in core disciplines of valuation, asset sales and consultancy
  - 7% increase in divisional headcount to 471 at the start of the financial year (2024: 442)
- Continuing to support organic growth through investment in technology, to enhance processes and improve efficiency, and in learning and development

Ric Traynor, Executive Chairman of Begbies Traynor Group plc, commented:

"The group has delivered double digit revenue and EBITDA growth, ahead of consensus expectations, marking its tenth successive year of profit growth. This reflects strong demand across the breadth of the group's services - from insolvency through to complex restructuring and our broad range of complementary financial and real estate advisory services.

"Recent momentum in recruitment for senior roles, together with visibility of fees on current instructions, underpins our confidence in continued organic growth, which we expect to supplement by executing on an encouraging pipeline of acquisitions enabled by our strong cash generation and balance sheet."

or acquisitions, enabled by our strong cash generation and balance sheet.
