Strategic Distributor: Tan Delta and Core Arabia join forces to drive oil condition monitoring innovation in Saudi Arabia and Bahrain

We are excited to announce a new strategic partnership agreement between Tan Delta and Core Arabia, a member of the Zahid Group of companies to market our cutting-edge oil condition monitoring technology across Saudi Arabia and Bahrain.

This partnership marks a significant step in expanding Tan Delta's footprint in the Middle East. Through Core's established presence and trusted relationships in the industrial, oil and gas, and manufacturing sectors, we will deliver real-time oil condition analysis solutions that help customers reduce maintenance costs, improve equipment uptime, and extend asset life.

Our state-of-the-art sensors and intelligent analytics allow businesses to continuously monitor the condition of oil and lubrication systems with precision and ease - enabling predictive maintenance, enhanced operational performance, and measurable sustainability gains.

By combining Tan Delta's innovative technology with Core's market expertise and technical service capabilities, we are set to accelerate the adoption of advanced condition monitoring across critical industries in the Kingdom of Saudia Arabia and Bahrain. Together, we are committed to transforming the way organisations manage their assets - offering smarter, data-driven solutions that empower customers to operate more efficiently and responsibly.

Robbie Pond, General Manager of Core Arabia noted that "Tan Delta's Oil Monitoring System will be a game-changer for our customers who are constantly being tasked with finding ways of keeping their equipment running longer while reducing their maintenance spends.

Through real-time analysis and digitalisation of the oil condition monitoring, customers can track equipment performance, plan maintenance and mitigate downtime from the comfort of their office or mobile device."

Chris Greenwood, Tan Delta CEO added that "The real time Oil Monitoring System has been adopted by some of the biggest companies in the world and we're proud to now be supporting the Saudi and Bahraini markets with best available technology coupled with local availability and support."
