

The Revel Collective Plc
(the "Company" or the "Group")

Directorate Change

The Revel Collective plc, a leading operator of premium bars and gastro pubs, trading mainly under the Revolution, Revolución de Cuba and Peach Pubs brands, confirms that further to the announcement on 26 March, the Company has appointed Matthew Fowler as Chief Financial Officer, effective from 16 June.

Matthew is an experienced public markets Chief Financial Officer, having most recently held the same position at musicMagpie plc until April this year, and prior to that genedrive plc. As noted in the announcement on 26 March, Danielle Davies will remain in the business in the short term to effect an orderly transition of her responsibilities.

Rob Pitcher, Chief Executive Officer of the Group, commented:

"I'm delighted to welcome Matthew to the Board. His wealth of experience will be invaluable in helping to steer the Group through the challenging times currently faced by the hospitality sector and support the business to realise its true value."

Matthew Fowler, incoming Chief Financial Officer, commented:

"I am excited to join The Revel Collective at this important moment in its journey. I look forward to working with Rob and the wider team to help deliver on the Company's strategic plans."
