Response to Press Speculation

Tasty (AIM: TAST), the owner and operator of restaurants in the casual dining sector, notes the recent share price movement and press speculation regarding the possible appointment of David Page, former Chief Executive Officer of PizzaExpress plc and former Executive Chairman of The Fulham Shore plc, to the Board of the Company and the possibility of the Company undertaking an equity capital raise.

The Board confirms that it has held advanced discussions with David Page and Nicholas Wong, former Finance Director of The Fulham Shore plc and that it is evaluating funding options with a view to investing in future strategic opportunities for the Company, which may involve an equity placing.

The Company will make further announcements as and when appropriate.
