Russian Court Order - Update

Further to the Board's previous RNS announcements regarding the lawsuit filed by VTB Bank in Russia claiming 81.3 million against eight J.P. Morgan legal entities and the Company, the Board announces the following update from the Company's Manager (in italics):

"The Russian court has suspended the claim against eight J.P. Morgan legal entities and JEMA. The case will be suspended while the English Appeal court considers VTB's appeal of the decision in the English court granting the J.P. Morgan entities and JEMA an anti-suit injunction. No further hearing date has currently been set in the Russian court matter. It is possible VTB may appeal the suspension."

The Board will provide further updates as the cases progress.
