Movement in Share Price

Westminster Group Plc (AIM: WSG), a leading supplier of managed services and technology-based security solutions worldwide notes the recent fall in its share price alongside the publication of an article about a Westminster cross party-political group being shut down and confirms this is nothing to do with the Company.

Furthermore, the Company understands that there is also speculation about the status of the passenger security fee in Gabon - for clarification a decree has been issued putting this passenger security fee into Gabonese law stipulating it to be collected by Westminster.
