Judgment Delivered in Commercial Litigation Claim

Litigation Capital Management Limited (AIM:LIT), an alternative asset manager specialising in dispute financing solutions internationally, announces that the High Court in London has just delivered a judgment in a commercial litigation claim funded by LCM (the Judgment).

The Judgment found against LCM's funded party. The investment was co-funded alongside Fund I. LCM contributed £9.9m (A 20.6m) of its own capital with a further £6.1m (A 12.7m) invested from Fund I. As at 30 June 2025, the investment was held at a fair value of £26.5m (A 55.3m) on LCM's balance sheet. Adverse costs risk is covered by ATE insurance. LCM will now review the judgment which has just been released and assess potential next steps alongside the funded party and legal representatives.

NOTES TO EDITORS

Litigation Capital Management (LCM) is an alternative asset manager specialising in disputes financing solutions internationally, which operates two business models. The first is direct investments made from LCM's permanent balance sheet capital and the second is third party fund management. Under those two business models, LCM currently pursues three investment strategies: Single-case funding, Portfolio funding and Acquisitions of claims. LCM generates its revenue from both its direct investments and also performance fees through asset management.

Currently headquartered in Sydney, with offices in London and Singapore, LCM listed on AIM in December 2018, trading under the ticker LIT.
