THE CONYGAR INVESTMENT COMPANY PLC
Partnership with Rhubarb Hospitality Collection
at The Island Quarter, Nottingham

The Conygar Investment Company PLC ("Conygar") announces that it has entered into a management agreement with Rhubarb Hospitality Collection (RHC) to operate the food, beverage and events operations at The Island Quarter, Nottingham. Under the terms of the agreement, RHC will be remunerated through a revenue share arrangement, which is expected to be cashflow neutral in the short term, with potential cost savings to be gained due to the experienced RHC procurement team.

The long-term agreement lasts for ten years and can be expanded to include other venues on the site in the future.

Christopher Ware, Managing Director of Conygar, commented:

"We are delighted to have attracted such a high-quality international operator to The Island Quarter. Rhubarb Hospitality Collection bring a wealth of experience to the project and we have no doubt that their knowledge will help further cement The Island Quarter as one of the best venues in the East Midlands".

PB Jacobse, Rhubarb CEO added:

"Rhubarb Hospitality Collection is delighted to partner with Conygar on this iconic site, loved in Nottingham. As a seasoned operator renowned for excellence, quality, and consistency, RHC's expertise will help us reimagine hospitality on the site. We look forward to bringing fresh energy and innovative concepts that will enhance the visitor experience."
