MASS Consultants Ltd ("MASS") secures £15.7m contract for countermeasures services

Cohort plc (AIM: CHRT), the independent technology group, is pleased to announce that its wholly owned subsidiary MASS has been awarded a four-year contract to provide airborne countermeasures and associated services to a UK defence prime contractor for an international end customer. The contract is valued at £15.7million.

Andy Thomis, Chief Executive of Cohort said:

"This contract is another example of MASS's world-leading reputation for countermeasures development, highlighting its unique position in the spectrum warfare sector.

"Together with other recent contract wins across the Group, including the £60m of orders referenced in our AGM announcement on 25th September, this success further enhances the visibility of our future revenues."
