About CGI

With a nearly 100-year track record, Canadian General Investments, Limited (CGI), was established in 1930 and is North America's second-oldest closed-end fund. With Assets under Management of approximately C 1.9 billion, CGI has been listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange since 1962 and on the London Stock Exchange since 1995.

CGI is domiciled in Canada and incorporated under the laws of Ontario, Canada. It is a closed-end equity fund focussed on medium- to long-term investments in primarily Canadian corporations; up to 25% of the CGI's portfolio can be invested in US equities.

Morgan Meighen & Associates Limited (MMA) took over management of CGI in 1956. MMA has approximately C 3.2bn of assets under management for both private and institutional clients.
