THE CONYGAR INVESTMENT COMPANY PLC

Sale of land at Rhosgoch

The Conygar Investment Company PLC ('Conygar') announces that it has completed the sale of its land holding at Rhosgoch in Anglesey to Rhosgoch Property Ltd, a wholly owned subsidiary of Stena Line (UK) Ltd for £18.5 million.

As a result, the company has repaid the £5.6 million ASK Partners loan secured against the 36 acre Island Quarter site in Nottingham City Centre, leaving the development land unencumbered. The remaining cash will be used for the Group's ongoing operations and working capital, primarily at The Island Quarter. The Group will record a profit of £15.8 million from the transaction based on the March 2025 accounts valuation of £2.5 million.

Freddie Jones, Property Director commented:

"We are delighted to have completed the sale of this asset to Stena and to continue our strong working relationship with them. We now look forward to advancing our other operations."
