Polar Capital Global Healthcare - Update from QuotedData

13 November 2025

Decision time

Shareholders in Polar Capital Global Healthcare (PCGH) are being asked to approve changes aimed at improving the trust's future prospects. These include lower fees, a better structure, and regular five-yearly opportunities for all investors to exit.

There is also an immediate exit option. Investors must decide whether to stay invested. However, with PCGH trading close to its asset value, those wanting to sell have already had the chance to do so in the market. We believe now is not the time to leave the healthcare sector, which remains undervalued but promising. In fact, we would consider increasing our investment.
