National Grid plc

Completion of sale of Grain LNG

National Grid plc ("National Grid") is pleased to announce that it has completed the sale of its Grain LNG business to a consortium of multinational energy company, Centrica plc and energy transition infrastructure investment firm, Energy Capital Partners, part of Bridgepoint Group plc.

About National Grid plc

National Grid lies at the heart of a transforming energy system, pioneering ways to build the reliable and resilient networks of the future. We power the lives of millions of people across the UK and the US, moving energy from where it's made to the homes and businesses that need it, every single day. We also drive change through engineering innovation and by incubating new ideas with the power to revolutionise our industry.

As one of the largest publicly listed energy network companies in the world, National Grid is committed to delivering secure, affordable, and cleaner energy for our customers while supporting economic growth in the communities we serve.
