Trading Update

TruFin is pleased to announce that its subsidiary, Playstack Limited ("Playstack"), a leading UK games publisher, successfully released Unbeatable, the highly anticipated anime-inspired rhythm-action adventure game, on 9 December.

As a result of strong performance across Playstack's back catalogue, combined with stronger-than-anticipated unit sales of Unbeatable, TruFin now expects its financial performance for the year ending 31 December 2025 to be materially ahead of previously guided market expectations. Group revenue, Adjusted EBITDA<sup>1</sup> and PBT<sup>1</sup> for the full year are now expected to exceed £60.3m, £11.2m and £7.0m respectively.

In light of this robust performance, TruFin's cash position at year-end is now expected to be stronger than originally forecast.

The Board remains committed to allocating capital where it generates the highest return profile for shareholders, when balanced with the risk profile of the potential returns. The Board will continue to explore reinvestment opportunities, acquisitions, and the continual returning of excess funds in a disciplined and value-enhancing manner.
