Pieter Krügel, CEO at Quantum Data Energy PLC, said: "We are very proud of the 2025 full year results that we achieved with our Pyebridge asset, which represent record high electricity generation and revenues. The results underscore the successful outcome of the refurbishment programme at Pyebridge, as well as the ongoing strong demand for flexible generation power amid intermittent renewable supply. QDE's core business model is to generate and supply flexible power at a premium when the national grid is constrained, and that business model is clearly working very well. We are looking forward to 2026 during which we plan to grow our portfolio of assets as we advance toward our first target of 300 MW at some pace."
