Christie Group plc
("Christie Group" or the "Company")

Completion of Vennersys sale

Christie Group plc (CTG.L), the leading provider of Professional & Financial Services and Stock & Inventory Systems & Services to the hospitality, leisure, healthcare, medical, childcare & education and retail sectors, is pleased to announce that on Friday 16th January 2026 it completed the disposal of the business and assets of its visitor attraction software business, Vennersys, to Digital Ticketing Systems Limited ("Digitickets").

Details of the consideration receivable are as set out in the announcement which was issued on Monday 22nd December 2025.

Following the sale of the business, Paul Ian Harding has agreed to remain with the Group and will continue to serve on the Christie Group plc Board in a non-executive capacity until the forthcoming Annual General Meeting on 16th June 2026. However, following the divestments of Orridge and Vennersys, Paul has chosen not to stand for re-election and will step down from the Board and all other remaining roles within Christie Group at that date.

Dan Prickett, Christie Group Chief Executive Officer commented:

"We are pleased to have smoothly concluded the sale of Vennersys and we wish all of the customers and staff who have transferred as a result of the sale, a successful future under new ownership. We are pleased to now be able to focus our time and resources on developing our core brands.

I am also delighted that Paul Harding has agreed to remain with the Group and will continue to work alongside me and our Board colleagues until the AGM in June. I would like to place on record my personal thanks to Paul for his professionalism and commitment in 25 years of working for Christie Group since joining when Orridge was acquired in 2001. Paul will leave with our thanks and very best wishes for the future for himself, his wife Angie and his family. We shall continue to count him as a friend and supporter of the Group."
