I look forward to contributing my experience in large-scale upstream projects to support Upland in delivering sustainable value for its shareholders."*

Statement from Upland Resources' CEO and Chairman, Bolhassan Di

"We are delighted to welcome Marc Bruner to Upland Resources at a pivotal time for the Company. Marc's outstanding track record in founding, scaling and successfully exiting energy companies, together with his leadership role in the 6 Tcf Lost Soldier discovery—an asset in which Upland is invested—adds significant strategic depth and execution capability to our board and management. His indirect 6% shareholding in Upland further aligns his interests with those of our shareholders."

This appointment comes as Upland advances several high-impact initiatives and approaches a number of important corporate and regulatory milestones. Marc's experience and insight will be instrumental as we position the Company for the next phase of growth and prepare to unlock material value across our targeted portfolio."
