Corero Network Security plc
("Corero", or "the Company")

Directorate Change

Corero Network Security plc (AIM: CNS) (OTCQX: DDOSF), the distributed denial of service ("DDoS") protection specialists and champion of adaptive, real-time service availability, is pleased to announce the appointment of Jeremy Nicholls as a Non-Executive Director of the Company with immediate effect.

Jeremy, based in the UK, has over 35 years of experience in security, networking, and unified collaboration technologies. He has held global leadership roles across channel, alliance, and direct sales with leading international technology organisations.

His career includes global positions at Kentik, Arbor Networks, Ericsson, and Polycom, where he has consistently delivered revenue growth, expanded market presence, and built strategic partnerships that strengthen long-term business performance.

Jens Montanana, Non-Executive Chairman, commented:

"I am delighted to welcome Jeremy to Corero and look forward to working with him as we continue to execute on our growth strategy."

Jeremy's experience in network security and channel-led go-to-market strategies brings meaningful expertise to the Board and further bolsters Corero's growing reputation across the sector."
