Update on audit

Pennpetro Energy plc, the company focused on developing strategic traditional and transition energy projects, notes that it has received a timeline and deadline from the Company's auditors, Crowe, that anticipates the completion of the audit for 2024/25 accounts by the 20th February 2026.

Richard Spinks, Executive Chairman added: "As shareholders know, I have been working hard with the auditors to ensure we can publish the final set of overdue accounts as soon as possible. Given the complexity of the business during this period, and the challenges with accessing the right information there will be a slight delay. I would like to reassure shareholders that we are working as hard as possible to achieve this revised timeline and will update further when we can."
