2. As at market close on 28 April 2026

Andy Golding, CEO of OSB GROUP PLC, said:

â€œThe Group delivered a resilient financial performance in the first quarter of 2026 and we continue to operate broadly in line with our 2026 guidance.

The Groupâ€™s lending franchise performed as expected in the first quarter. Buy-to-Let originations under our Rely brand were strong, supported by an increase in market activity at the start of the year. We continued to tailor our specialist Residential mortgage products to the needs of our borrowers by introducing several key policy criteria and saw increased originations in the first quarter. At the end of April, our net loan book growth was in line with our expectations.

Supported by our new technology platforms, we were able to more effectively manage the impact of the rapid movements in swap rates in the first quarter. We were agile in repricing products, protecting margins and returns while ensuring we remained present in the market for our customers. Our timely actions resulted in the blended cost of new retail funding being in line with our expectations in the quarter. As set out at our 2025 full year results, our 2026 NIM guidance is partially dependent on the cost of retail funding normalising throughout the rest of the year.

We also made good progress on transformation as the programme entered its penultimate year. Final stages of testing are underway ahead of the launch of Residential mortgages on the new lending platform in the third quarter. We have continued migrating Kent Reliance easy access savings accounts and fixed rate bonds onto the new platform, extending its benefits to more of our savers. We will add ISA products onto the new platform for new Kent Reliance savers and will launch a new savings app later in the year.

Looking ahead, we are mindful of the ongoing uncertain geopolitical situation and its impact on the UK economy, the wider mortgage market and borrowersâ€™ affordability. In response, we are carefully managing the composition and growth of our loan book, with a continued focus on protecting returns whilst ensuring that our modelled IFRS 9 ECL provisions reflect the macroeconomic scenarios as they evolve.

We are making progress through the second year of the transition period to deliver on our medium-term aspirations, with positive outcomes for our stakeholders and strong returns for our shareholders.â€

Summary of 2026 guidance:

Loan book growth	Broadly similar to 2025
Net interest margin	circa 225bps
Administrative expenses	c.Â£280m[3]
Return on tangible equity	Low teens
Dividend per share	5% increase from 2025

3. Additional costs related to the new CEO transition and buyout are not included
