Marechale Capital plc

("Marechale" or the "Company")

New Website

Marechale Capital plc, the AIM-quoted digital merchant bank, is pleased to announce the launch of its new corporate website.

The new website provides a modernised platform for investors, clients and shareholders and reflects the Group's evolution into a fully integrated digital merchant bank operating across corporate finance, capital markets, asset management and technology-enabled financial services.

The website has been designed to better communicate Marechale's strategy, following the transformation of the Group and the strengthening of its position as one of the first fully integrated digital merchant banks quoted on the London Stock Exchange.

Through its operating businesses, Marechale Capital, Stanford Capital Partners, Blubird Global and NJC Capital Management, the Group provides a comprehensive suite of services spanning corporate finance advisory, capital markets, tokenisation and asset management solutions. This platform is further enhanced by the Group's ownership of the Blubird technology platform.

The new corporate website is available at https://marechalecapital.com/

Investor relations information, including AIM Rule 26 disclosures, will also be available through the new website.

Patrick Booth-Clibborn, Chief Executive Officer of Marechale Capital plc, commented:

"The launch of our new website marks an important milestone in the continued development of Marechale Capital. The site better reflects the strength and breadth of our integrated merchant banking platform and our vision of bridging traditional and digital finance. We believe it will provide a more engaging and informative experience for our shareholders, clients and wider stakeholders as we continue to evolve and execute our growth strategy."
