4. The entry of an order by a self-regulatory organization that permanently or temporarily barred, suspended, or otherwise limited such person's involvement in any type of business or securities activities.

B. Describe briefly any material pending legal proceedings, other than ordinary routine litigation incidental to the business, to which the issuer or any of its subsidiaries is a party or of which any of their property is the subject. Include the name of the court or agency in which the proceedings are pending, the date instituted, the principal parties thereto, a description of the factual basis alleged to underlie the proceeding and the relief sought. Include similar information as to any such proceedings known to be contemplated by governmental authorities.

On January 2, 2019, a class action complaint was filed with the United States District Court, Eastern District of New York on behalf of Michael Behrendsen against the Company, Xiangyao Liu, Xin Zheng and Tsz-Kit Chan (Civil Action Number 1:19-cv-00024-DLI-LB) (the "Complaint"). The two-count Complaint alleges violations of Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder, and Section 20(a) of the Exchange Act. The Court entered an Order approving of lead counsel and lead plaintiff. On June 3, 2019, counsel for the lead plaintiff filed an Amended Complaint, asserting the same two causes of action, albeit with greater verbosity. The Amended Complaint alleges the defendants made materially false and/or misleading statements and/or failed to disclose that: (1) the Company's purported lease of the Wuhan Yangtze River Newport Logistics Center, the Company's main asset, was a fabrication; (2) the Company's only operating subsidiary, Wuhan Newport, was declared insolvent in China due to a number of default judgments against it; and (3) as a result, the defendants' statements about its business, operations, and prospects, were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times. The class action seeks to recover damages against the defendants' actions. On July 17, 2019, the Company filed a Motion to Dismiss the Amended Complaint for failure to state a claim. That motion is still pending, though it has been fully briefed. Finally, as of the date of this report, no class has yet to be certified. Management believes that the Company will prevail this lawsuit, and any resolution will not have a material adverse effect on the financial condition or results of operations of the Company.

The Complaint alleges the defendants made materially false and/or misleading statements and/or failed to disclose that: (1) the Company's purported lease of the Wuhan Yangtze River Newport Logistics Center, the Company's main asset, was a fabrication; (2) the Company's only operating subsidiary, Wuhan Newport, was declared insolvent in China due to a number of default judgments against it; and (3) as a result, the defendants' statements about its business, operations, and prospects, were materially false and misleading and/or lacked a reasonable basis at all relevant times. The class action seeks to recover damages against the defendants' actions. As of the date of this report, no class has yet to be certified and the Company has not been served with the Complaint.

In addition, on October 24, 2018, Stenergy, LLC filed a lawsuit against the Company in the New York State Supreme Court, New York County. The two-count complaint alleges that the Company breached a contract with Stenergy, LLC and seeks damages arising from the breach, and further seeks recovery under a quantum meruit theory to obtain the reasonable value of its services performed. The Company answered the Complaint with affirmative defenses on December 4, 2018.

On January 23, 2019, we filed a defamation lawsuit in the New York Supreme Court, New York County, against Hindenburg Research, Nathan Anderson, ClaritySpring Securities, LLC and ClaritySpring Inc. (collectively, "Defendants") in response to their coordinated and orchestrated market manipulation scheme to disseminate false, misleading and defamatory content to the marketplace regarding the Company for the purpose of inflicting substantial reputational harm on us for Defendants' own financial gain. The impetus for the action was a false, misleading and defamatory unsigned article published on December 6, 2018 through one of the Defendants' aliases, "Hindenburg Research," which erroneously accused us of making fraudulent misrepresentations in our public filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission or intentionally omitting material information in those filings, laundering money through sham transactions for the benefit of our Chief Executive Officer, and being ensnared in a catastrophic liquidity crisis rendering the Company worthless.

On October 17, 2019, the Nasdaq Listing and Hearing Review Council informed the Company of its decision to affirm the prior decision of the Nasdaq Hearings Panel, dated August 16, 2019, to delist the Company's securities from NASDAQ. The suspension of trading in the shares became effective at the open of business on August 20, 2019
