

OTC Pink® Basic Disclosure Guidelines

Federal securities laws, such as Rules 10b-5 and 15c2-11 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act") as well as Rule 144 of the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act"), and state Blue Sky laws, require issuers to provide adequate current information to the public markets. With a view to encouraging compliance with these laws, OTC Markets Group has created these OTC Pink Basic Disclosure Guidelines. We use the basic disclosure information provided by OTC Pink companies under these guidelines to designate the appropriate tier in the OTC Pink marketplace: Current, Limited or No Information. On October 1, 2014, the Company's newly created wholly-owned subsidiary, Tapinator IAF LLC ("TapIAF") executed a purchase agreement with InAppFuel, Inc., a Delaware corporation and related entity ("IAF"), and IAF's majority note holders to acquire certain assets and liabilities of IAF's mobile minigame software development business (the "IAF Business") in exchange for (i) the assumption of certain promissory notes owed by IAF, (ii) providing a revolving line of credit for the IAF Business, and (iii) the issuance of new Series A preferred stock in TapIAF to the equity holders of IAF.

On June 16, 2014, the Company executed a securities exchange agreement with the members of Tapinator, LLC, a New York limited liability company, whereby the Company issued 36,700,000 shares of its common stock (representing 80% of its then common stock outstanding after giving effect to the transaction) to the members of Tapinator, LLC in exchange for 100% of the outstanding membership interest units of Tapinator, LLC (the "Securities Exchange Transaction"). The exchange resulted in a business combination, and a change of control within its business purpose.

Previously reported results for periods prior to December 31, 2014 have been restated to reflect changes in the accounting treatment of the Securities Exchange Transaction and other accounting changes that were implemented pursuant to the Company's recently completed financial audit performed by the independent registered public accounting firm of Liggett, Vogt & Webb, P.A. This restatement resulted in reductions to goodwill and stockholders' equity, and also resulted in changes to the Company's previously reported net income (loss), balance sheet and statement of cash flows.

In March 2015, the Company issued a convertible promissory note to a shareholder in the principal amount of $6,500. The note pays simple interest at the rate of 10% per year and matures in March 2016. The note is convertible into the Company's common stock automatically upon a qualified financing, or absent a qualified financing, voluntarily by the holder at a 30% discount to the Company's 10 day volume weighted adjusted common share price, with a floor of $0.205 and ceiling of $0.30.

In December 2014, in exchange for $110,000 of proceeds, the Company sold a 12.5% royalty interest in the net revenues to be generated by one of its original, full-featured premium games to two separate investors (6.25% was sold to each investor at $55,000), one of which is a shareholder, and the other a related entity of another shareholder. In March 2015, the royalty agreement of the entity related to a shareholder was cancelled. The payments made prior to cancellation of $30,000 were reclassified as a convertible promissory note. The note pays simple interest at the rate of 10% per year and matures in March 2016. The note is convertible into the Company's common stock automatically upon a qualified financing, or absent a qualified financing, voluntarily by the holder at a 30% discount to the Company's 10 day volume weighted adjusted common share price, with a floor of $0.205 and ceiling of $0.30. In September 2014, the Company issued a convertible promissory note in the principal amount of $150,000 which is due and payable on October 1, 2015. The note bears an interest rate of 10% per year, provided however that any past due principal on the note shall bear interest until paid at the maximum non-usurious interest rate allowable under applicable law, or 18% per annum if no such maximum is established. On October 1, 2015, the Company shall automatically convert any outstanding unpaid balance into the Company's common stock at a conversion price equal to 80% of the volume weighted average closing price of the common stock during the ten trading days prior to the conversion date. The conversion price shall have a minimum price of $0.25, and a maximum price of $1.00. In April 2015, pursuant to a letter of acknowledgement received by the Company from the note holder, such note was restated into two separate convertible promissory notes of $75,000 each, issued to the original note holder and to a related party, with same terms as the original note.

In July 2014, the Company issued 334,266 shares of restricted common stock to purchase debt obligations totaling $111,422 owed to the note holders of a related party.

In June 2014, the Company cancelled 36,500,000 shares of its common stock, and issued 36,700,000 shares of restricted common stock (representing 80% of its then common stock outstanding after giving effect to the transaction) to the members of Tapinator, LLC, a New York limited liability company, pursuant to the share exchange agreement executed by the Company and the members. The certificates of stock issued pursuant to this transaction bear Rule 144 restrictive legends and state that the shares have not been registered under the Securities Act.

In June 2014, the Company issued 885,500 shares of Series D preferred stock to various directors, advisory board members and consultants. By consent of the Company and unanimous consent of the holders of this Series D, a mutual agreement was reached in September 2014 to amend the Series D designation. This amendment allowed the Company to retire all of the Series D shares by issuing 5,615,907 shares of restricted common stock by December 31, 2014.

From October 2013 to April 2014, the Company issued 461,100 shares of Series C preferred stock at a price per share of $1.00 pursuant to a private placement offering of up to 500,000 shares in which the Company received $351,000 of net cash proceeds.
