of directors of the Issuer and has received written certification from each of them that they have reviewed the Information and certify that the Information does not contain any untrue statement of material fact or omit to state a material fact that would make the Information not misleading and agree with its contents.

As to matters of fact, Counsel has relied on information obtained from public officials, officers of the Issuer and other sources. Counsel has no reason to believe that such information or sources are not reliable.

To the best knowledge of Counsel, after inquiry of management and the directors of the Issuer, neither the Issuer nor any 5% shareholder of the Issuer nor Counsel is currently under investigation by any federal or state regulatory authority for any violations of federal or state securities laws.

The company is not a “shell” company, as defined in Rule 405 under the Securities Act and Rule 12b-2 under the Exchange Act.

We are opining herein as to the United States federal securities laws, and we express no opinion with respect to the applicability thereto, or the effect thereon, of the laws of any other jurisdiction or as to any matters of municipal law or the laws of any local agencies within any state. In addition, the opinions expressed in this Letter are given as of the date of this Letter and Counsel disclaims any obligation to advise OTC Markets of any change in any matter set forth herein.

No person other than OTC Markets is entitled to rely on this Letter in determining whether the Issuer has made adequate current information publicly available within the meaning of Rule 144(c)(2) under the Securities Act. However, in connection therewith, OTC Markets is granted full and complete permission to publish the Letter through the OTC Disclosure & News Service for public viewing.

Sincerely,
Anthony L.G., PLLC
