BioStem Technologies, Inc.
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements
(Unaudited)

Note—1 Organization and Description of Business

BioStem Technologies, Inc. (hereinafter “the Company”), was incorporated as Aladdin & Company Trading in Utah on July 7, 2006. Aladdin & Company Trading later changed its name to Caribbean Casino & Gaming Corporation and re-domiciled to Florida on March 2, 2009. Caribbean Casino & Gaming Corporation further changed its name to Caribbean International Holdings, Inc. on January 7, 2013. On August 28, 2014, the Company changed its name to BioStem Technologies, Inc.

The Company’s fiscal year end is December 31.

COVID-19 pandemic

The coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic around the world, and particularly in the United States, continues to present risks to the Company. While the COVID-19 pandemic has not materially adversely affected the Company’s financial results and business operations through September 30, 2022, the Company is unable to predict the impact that COVID-19 will have on its financial position and operating results because of the numerous uncertainties created by the unprecedented nature of the pandemic.

The Company is closely monitoring the evolving impact of the pandemic on all aspects of its business. The Company has implemented several measures designed to protect the health and safety of its employees, support its customers, and promote business continuity.

Note—2 Going Concern and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Going Concern

As reflected in the accompanying consolidated financial statements, the Company incurred net losses of ($1,703,322) and ($2,885,054) for the three months ended March 2023, and 2022, respectively, and has an accumulated deficit and working capital deficit of ($38,726,368) and ($5,579,69) as of March 31, 2023, respectively. These factors raise substantial doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern.

The ability of the Company to continue its operations is dependent on management’s plans, which includes the raising of capital through debt and/or equity markets, restructuring outstanding debt and additional funding from other traditional financing sources, including convertible debt and/or other term notes, until such time that funds provided by operations are sufficient to fund working capital requirements. The Company may need to incur liabilities with certain related parties to sustain the Company’s operations.

The Company will require additional funding to finance the growth of its current and expected future operations as well as to achieve its strategic objectives. The Company’s cash currently available, along with anticipated revenues, may not be sufficient to meet its cash needs for the near future. There can be no assurance that financing will be available in amounts or terms acceptable to the Company, if at all.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. These financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recovery of the recorded assets or the classification of the liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

As of March 31, 2023, the Company has repurchased the remaining 10% NCI in BSLS and is no longer required to report a NCI on its consolidated financial statements. The accompanying consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (“US GAAP”) and include the accounts of BioStem Technologies, Inc. and all its wholly owned and majority-owned entities. All intercompany transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

As such, the information included in this quarterly report should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company’s audited financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2021, filed with the OTC on October 10, 2022.

The consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2021, included herein was derived from the audited financial statements as of that date but does not include all disclosures including notes required by U.S. GAAP.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements reflect all normal recurring adjustments necessary to present fairly the financial position, results of operations, changes in stockholders’ deficit and cash flows for the interim periods, but do not purport to be indicative of the results of operations or financial condition to be anticipated for the full year ending December 31, 2022. Prior period amounts have been reclassified to conform with the current period presentation.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes.

Such estimates and assumptions impact both assets and liabilities, including but not limited to net realizable value of accounts receivable and inventory, estimated useful lives and impairment of long-lived assets, the valuation of intangible assets, estimated fair value of share-based payments, and the valuation of deferred tax assets.

Making estimates requires management to exercise significant judgment. It is at least reasonably possible that the estimate of the effect of a condition, situation or set of circumstances that existed at the date of the consolidated financial statements, which management considered in formulating its estimate could change in the near term due to one or more future non-conforming events. Accordingly, actual results could differ significantly from estimates.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Company’s operations are subject to risk and uncertainties including financial, operational, regulatory, and other risks including the potential risk of business failure.

BioStem Technologies, Inc.
(Unaudited)

The Company has experienced, and in the future expects to continue to experience, variability in its sales and earnings. The factors expected to contribute to this variability include, among others: (i) the uncertainty associated with the commercialization and ultimate success of the Company's products; (ii) competition inherent in the markets where products are expected to be sold; (iii) general economic conditions; and (iv) the related volatility of prices pertaining to the cost of sales.

Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

The significant accounting policies applied in the Company's audited consolidated financial statements, as disclosed in its financial report filed with the OTC on October 10, 2022, are applied consistently in these unaudited interim consolidated financial statements.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements Not Yet Adopted

The Company has reviewed the accounting pronouncements issued during the three months ended March 31, 2023, and concluded they were either not applicable or not expected to have a material impact on the Company's unaudited consolidated financial statements.

Note 3—Inventory

Inventory is stated at the lower of cost or estimated net realizable value. Inventory cost is determined by the first-in, first-out (FIFO) basis. Inventory costs include raw material, labor, operating overhead, supplies, depreciation and amortization of leased lab equipment and other related costs.

The Company performs an assessment of the recoverability of inventory cost during each reporting period, and it provides a valuation allowance for slow-moving, excess, and obsolete inventories to their estimated net realizable value in the period in which the need for an allowance is first identified. Such impairment charges are recorded within cost of goods sold.

The table below presents the Company's inventory values, by category, as of:

	March 31, 2023	December 31, 2022
Raw Materials	$ 95,483	$ 74,040
Finish Goods	355,512	346,188

Less: valuation allowance	(25,000)	(25,000)
Total-net realizable value	$ 425,995	$ 395,229

Note 4—Revenue Recognition

The Company records revenue from product sales in accordance with ASC 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers.

The Company recognizes revenue from product sales at a point in time, when control of the Company's product has transferred to the customer, which generally occurs upon shipment. Shipping and handling cost are included as a component of revenue and are passed through to customers with an equal offsetting amount included in cost of goods sold.

BioStem Technologies, Inc.
(Unaudited)

This is when the Company has satisfied its performance obligations. Revenue is recognized in an amount that reflects the consideration that the Company expects to receive in exchange for the product, which is generally fixed. Based on prior experience, and the nature of the product, variable consideration resulting from product discounts is not material.

Returns from customers are not accepted. Accordingly, there is no provision for sales returns recorded for any period presented.

The following table provides information about revenue disaggregated by major products categories:

	For the Three-Months Ended March 31,
	2023	2022

Contract liabilities represent amounts collected from customers upfront upon placement of an order for product and is included in other current liabilities in the Company's balance sheets. The Company generally recognizes revenue from contract liabilities within the following fiscal year.

Contract Costs

The Company incurs incremental costs to obtain contracts with its customers. These costs consist primarily of sales commissions paid to our sales force. As the expected period of amortization is not expected to exceed one year, the Company has elected to expense such costs as incurred.

Note 5—Net Loss Per Share

Basic net loss per share is computed by dividing the net loss by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted net loss is computed by adjusting net loss to reallocate undistributed earnings based on the potential impact of dilutive securities, including outstanding common stock options, restricted stock awards, warrants to purchase common stock, convertible preferred stock, and common stock issuable in connection with convertible notes. For periods in which the Company has reported net losses, diluted net loss per share is the same as basic net loss per share because dilutive common shares are not assumed to have been issued if their effect is anti-dilutive.

BioStem Technologies, Inc.

The following potentially dilutive shares were excluded from the computation of diluted loss per share as including them would have been anti-dilutive:

Note— 12 Finance Leases and Related Obligations

The Company leases certain specialized equipment under leases classified as finance leases. The equipment leases were entered into between April 2017 and April 2022 maturing between January 2022 and July 2025 and include bargain purchases options at the end of the leases. The Company's significant judgments include determining whether an arrangement is or contains a lease, the determination of the discount rate used to calculate the lease liability, and whether lease incentives are reasonably certain to occur in the initial measurement of the lease liability. Finance lease assets and lease liabilities are recognized at commencement date and initially measured based on the present value of lease payments over the defined lease term. Interest and amortization expense are recognized over the lease term using the effective interest method.

A contract is or contains an embedded lease if the contract meets all the below criteria:

- There is an identified asset
- The Company has the right to obtain substantially all the economic benefit of the asset; and
- The Company has the right to direct the use of the asset.

For initial measurement of the present value of lease payments and for subsequent measurement of lease modifications, the Company is required to use the rate implicit in the lease. The Company uses its incremental borrowing rate, which is a collateralized rate, for leases without a rate implicit in the lease. The application of the incremental borrowing rate is performed on a lease-by-lease basis and approximates the rate at which the Company could borrow, on a secured basis for a similar term, an amount equal to its lease payments in a similar economic environment. The weighted average interest rate for the Company's finance leases is 7.58%

The following table summarizes the Company's finance lease assets and lease liabilities as of March 31, 2023, and December 31, 2022:
