KEY PERFORMANCE TRENDS

135 Years Strong

Fellow Shareholders,

It has been my privilege to preside over nearly two decades of this institution's storied 135-year history. During my tenure, I've had the good fortune to work with the most talented and dedicated team of professionals one could hope for.

When asked how the Bank of Greene County has managed to survive and thrive over such a long span of time, my answer is always the same: it's our people. People committed to our community banking values, our customers, and to each other.

I suspect that even during the time of gas lamps and horse-drawn carriages, when our bank was first organized, it was also all about the people. No doubt our founders had to dig deep to overcome the challenges of the day, challenges that included renting their very first office in a basement beneath the headquarters of their chief competitor—the now defunct Tanners National Bank. Talk about the need for humility!

The 20th century certainly presented our bank's caretakers with some unsettling events to overcome: the Great Depression, two world wars, and several natural disasters, to name a few. But they stayed the course and continued to steadily grow our institution.

Donald Gibson, President and CEO

The bank's watershed moment came in late 1998, when then President & CEO J. Bruce Whittaker devised a plan to take the company public. The following year, the recently renamed Bank of Greene County established a holding company and listed its stock on the Nasdaq exchange. At the time, the bank had just four offices and $151 million in assets. Today—a mere 25 years later—Greene County Bancorp, Inc. (GCBC) comprises 18 branches and 6 offices in New York's Hudson Valley and Capital Region and $2.8 billion in assets.

The last couple of decades have been good ones for our company. GCBC posted record net income for 15 consecutive years, a run of remarkable earnings performance that extended through June 30, 2023. In fiscal 2024, with the banking industry bucking the headwinds of the most inverted yield curve ever, the streak of record earnings came to an end. However, the company still posted the third highest net income in its history.

Greene County Bancorp, Inc. reported net income of $24.8 million for the year ended June 30, 2024, compared to $30.8 million for the prior fiscal year. Total assets were $2.8 billion at June 30, 2024, a fiscal year record high, with both net loans and consolidated deposits also ending the year at record highs. Return on Average Equity finished strong for fiscal 2024 at just under 13%.

Our ability to withstand challenging interest rate conditions is no accident. We have been rebalancing our loan portfolio to include more commercial lending for a long time. Five years ago, our portfolio was about evenly split between residential and commercial loans; today, commercial loan volume is three times that of residential. Commercial loans are typically shorter term and provide us with mechanisms for coping with unfavorable market conditions.

HONORED, AGAIN!

Investment banking firm Keefe, Bruyette & Woods named GCBC to the KBW Honor Roll for the 13th consecutive year. KBW recognized just 18 banks for their consistent earnings growth over the last 10 years. We are the only institution in the U.S. to receive this honor for 13 years in a row.

Our bank has consistently earned accolades from a wide range of industry experts throughout its quarter-century as a publicly traded company. You'll find many of them noted in the timeline contained in this report.

NEW ADDITIONS

We officially opened our new Wealth Management Center at 345 Main Street in Catskill in November 2023. I'm proud that we were able to restore this historic structure, built in 1910, in a manner that respects its original character. The center will eventually provide office space for 50 to 60 employees.

We also launched our new Capital Region Banking Center in March of 2024. The center is located just off Wolf Road in Colonie and is staffed by a team of business banking specialists led by Mike Danforth, Vice President and Director of Capital Region Lending.

The goal is to offer businesses in Albany, Schenectady, Saratoga and Rensselaer counties easy access to our financial resources and expertise. The center joins our Albany and East Greenbush branches rounding out the bank's presence in the Capital Region. We see tremendous opportunities for growth in this market.

FOND FAREWELLS

I would like to take a moment to recognize Michelle Plummer and Martha Keeler, two key members of our team who recently retired.

The historic Tanners Bank headquarters at 345 Main Street in Catskill was restored to its former architectural glory. It's now home to the bank's new Wealth Management Center.

Both were the first ever to occupy their respective positions at the company.

Michelle was recruited to serve as the bank's first Chief Financial Officer when the company went public in 1999. She was instrumental in guiding us through the regulatory complexities that come with operating as a public company.

Eventually, Michelle also took on the role of Chief Operating Officer and in 2015 became the first woman to serve on our Board of Directors. She retired at the end of June 2024 but will continue to serve on the board.

Martha Keeler was hired in 2005 to run the bank's first-ever marketing department. As Director of Marketing, Martha helped define our brand and did the hard work of spreading our message in new markets. She retired at the end of August 2024.

On behalf of the entire company, I thank Michelle and Martha for their many contributions to our success and wish them well in retirement.

270 YEARS ANYONE?

It's hard to imagine what another 135 years of this company's history might look like. Or whether it's even possible. Here's what I do know: the Bank of Greene County was built to remain independent forever, so it can safeguard and promote a good quality of life in all the communities it serves.

As long as we are financially strong, our corporate structure will protect our independence. And as long as we continue to serve as good stewards of the community, we will remain financially strong.

So yes, with the continued support of people like you, I think another 135 years is possible. In fact, I think it's likely!

Wishing you the best,

Donald E. Gibson
President & Chief Executive Officer

PS: Our Annual Shareholder Meeting and Brunch will be held at 10am Saturday, November 2, 2024, at Columbia-Greene Community College in Hudson, NY. It's a great opportunity to learn more about our results and participate in our planning process.

When we saw other banks going public and then disappearing, we didn't think that would be in the best interests of the community.
