Our team of overseas relationship managers grew to 138 in 2024, who are driving this expansion by blending our wealth management, asset management, and integrated global inheritance services to craft comprehensive global solutions that address the specific needs of each target client segment."

"As we enter 2025, we are poised to build on the momentum we picked up last year where our strategic focus will be squarely on expanding our client base both domestically and internationally. The global infrastructure we are building will deepen our reach into markets with large Mandarin-speaking communities globally, significantly expanding opportunities to acquire new clients with our competitive investment solutions and renowned service standards, and will drive long-term sustainable growth going forward. We recognize that we are still in the early stages of this global expansion and place significant value on delivering sustained returns to the shareholders who join us for this journey. We are committed to sharing our success going forward and are pleased to announce that the Board has approved an annual dividend and a special dividend, which together amount to RMB550 million, equivalent to 100% of our full-year 2024 non-GAAP net income attributable to Noah shareholders."
