Topsports (6110 HK)

Turnaround is on track despite bumpy sales

We believe Topsorts is undergoing a turnaround despite the macro uncertainty. Sales growth may still be bumpy but boosted by increased efforts from the principal brands (on new products and marketing) and Topsports (self-initiated efficiency gains), we do foresee faster sales growth and margin improvements onwards. The Company is only trading at $12 x$ FY2/25E P/E, still attractive vs 4year avg. of $13 x$ and a $21 \% 3$-year NP CAGR.

- Inventory and retail discount continued to improve in 1H24. Retail sales growth might be bumpy, but channel condition has become healthier. Topsports' inventory days fell to just 141 days, compared to 150/ 168 days in FY23/ 1H23 and its retail discounts also narrowed by MSD YoY in 1H24.
- Retail sales growth missed in 2Q24. Topsports' retail sales declined by LSD YoY in 2Q24 (similar for both online and offline), slowing down significantly from the low $20 \%$ in 1Q24, mainly due to the drags from Adidas (distorted sales of Yeezy and termination of NEO which accounted for roughly $1 / 3$ of the total closures in 1 H 24 ).
- But outlook for 3Q24E and onwards are still positive. In our view, the retail sales growth should accelerate in 2H24E and FY25E, thanks to: 1) encouraging momentum (growth during 10-1 was similar to Sep but faster than that in 1 H 24 ), 2) turnaround of Adidas, certain products (e.g. Samba, Gazelle and Superstar) and series (e.g. Adidas Original) have become popular once again, hence management is expecting faster trade fair sales growth, 3) speeding up in sport stars and celebrities' endorsements, and 4) stabilization in total selling area (store closures to slow down plus more larger stores). Moreover, we foresee its margin to improve, because of: 1) better control over its inventory, and hence better retail discounts (e.g. implementation of the more flexible trade fair ordering system (initial orders/ re-orders mix to become $70 \% / 30 \%$ ), 2) more operating leverage (more larger-sized new stores or revamped stores to yield higher sales per store) and 3 ) multiple ways to drive efficiency gains.
■ Maintain BUY and raise TP to HK\$ 9.23, based on 18x FY2/25E P/E (unchanged). The new TP is based on an unchanged 18x FY2/25E P/E. We fine-tuned $\mathrm{FY} 24 \mathrm{E} / 25 \mathrm{E} / 26 \mathrm{E}$ net profit by $-2 \% /+2 \% /+2 \%$, to factor in weaker-than-expected 2 Q24 sales and GP margin; but a stronger-thanexpected operating leverage and efficiency gains. The counter is now trading at $12 \times$ FY2/25E P/E, highly attractive, given a 4 -year avg. of $13 x$ and 21\% 3-year NP CAGR during FY23-26E.

－1H24 sales slightly missed but margin beat strongly．Topsports＇sales increased by 7\％YoY to RMB 14．bn，missing CMBI est．by 5\％，mainly due to：1）one－off drags from Adidas（suspension of the sales of Yeezy and store closures of Adidas NEO） and 2）relatively weak（vs 1Q24）retail sales in 2Q24（registered a LSD decline）．Net profit jumped by $17 \%$ YoY to RMB 1.34 bn ，inline with CMBI est．．Despite a weaker－ than－expected GP margin（less－than－expected improvement in retail discounts and fade out of subsidies from principal brands），OP margin was stronger－than－expected， mainly driven by：1）higher level of digitalization（more workloads were shared with headquarters through IT systems）and 2）operating leverage by（positive SSSG， store revamp（ $30 \%$ increases in sales per store vs old format）and reshuffle of stores （new store＇s sales per store can be as high as $3 x$ of the old one）．Moreover，if we exclude other income and gains，core net profit would have gone up by $39 \%$ YoY．
