‘AI x Data’ empowers continuous delivery of multi-scenario intelligent solutions. In 25H1, the company advanced the ‘Data x AI’ strategy, enhancing the ‘YanCloud Infinity Platform’ as a core data intelligence base, efficiently building and deploying industry-integrated intelligent applications. In smart supply chain scenarios, the company implemented a full-stack data intelligence solution, achieving deep ‘AI for Process’ integration. In government-enterprise digitalization, an end-to-end data intelligence solution with DeepSeek private deployment was launched, successfully deploying the first AI assistant in a municipal service app.

Risk Warning: Intensified industry competition, weaker than expected product implementation, and AI deployment risks.
