APPENDIX 1*Summary

2025 results: high-quality growth achieved, record profitability driven by cost tailwinds and efficiency optimization. In 2025, the company delivered high-quality growth, exceeding market expectations. Revenue grew 22.5% year-on-year to RMB 52.55 billion, surpassing the RMB 50 billion mark for the first time. Gross margin expanded 2.4 percentage points year-on-year to a record high of 60.5%, benefiting from: ① lower raw material costs for PET, cartons, and sugar; ② improved pricing discipline by controlling the proportion of e-channel sales; and ③ higher production and sales volumes, coupled with optimized delivery radius. The selling expense ratio declined 2.7 percentage points to 18.6%, primarily due to lower advertising and promotional spending following the 2024 Olympic year, as well as logistics cost efficiencies. The administrative expense ratio remained flat at 4.7%. Net profit attributable to shareholders increased 30.9% year-on-year to RMB 15.87 billion, with net margin expanding 1.9 percentage points to a record high of 30.2%. Performance in the second half of 2025 was particularly strong, with revenue up 30% year-on-year to RMB 26.93 billion (vs. 15.6% in the first half), gross margin and operating margin expanding 3.4 and 5.3 percentage points year-on-year respectively, and net profit attributable to shareholders rising 40% year-on-year to RMB 8.25 billion.

Tea beverage becomes the largest business segment, water profitability surpasses 2023 levels. For the full year, revenue from packaged drinking water, tea beverages, functional beverages, and fruit juice beverages increased 17.3%, 29.0%, 16.8%, and 26.7% year-on-year to RMB 18.7 billion, RMB 21.6 billion, RMB 5.8 billion, and RMB 5.2 billion, respectively, accounting for 36%, 41%, 11%, and 10% of total revenue. Profitability expanded 6.3, 2.9, 4.6, and 9.4 percentage points year-on-year to 37.4%, 48.0%, 46.8%, and 34.3%, respectively. Tea beverages surpassed packaged water in revenue for the first time, becoming the company's largest category, with growth of 38% in the second half of the year, further solidifying its leading market position. Packaged water revenue growth recovered to 24.9% in the second half of 2025 (vs. 10.7% in the first half), with second-half profitability expanding 9.4 percentage points year-on-year to 39.4%; full-year profitability surpassed the 2023 level (36.3%).

2026 targets double-digit growth, overseas channel expansion commences. Management has guided for double-digit revenue growth in 2026, with performance year-to-date tracking in line with expectations. The near-term target for packaged water is to return to and then surpass the 2023 revenue level (RMB 20.26 billion), supported by initiatives such as consumer education on water quality and expansion into foodservice applications to solidify its leading position. For tea beverages, unsweetened tea still offers significant growth headroom, and the company will strengthen end-to-end supply chain capabilities in raw materials while continuing to drive product innovation. Capital expenditure is expected to remain at a relatively high level of over RMB 6.5 billion, allocated to new plant construction, new water source facilities coming onstream, and equipment deployment, while cooler investments are expected to remain stable. The company will expand the scope of its "cap lottery" promotional campaign in 2026, with a corresponding increase in marketing spend. Core products such as Nongfu Spring, Oriental Leaf, and  $\pi$  have been launched in Hong Kong and Singapore, marking the first step in overseas channel expansion and laying the foundation for global growth.

Investment thesis and earnings forecasts. We forecast 2026–2028 revenue of RMB 59.44 billion, RMB 66.80 billion, and RMB 74.97 billion, respectively (previous: RMB 56.64 billion, RMB 63.72 billion, NA), representing year-on-year growth of 13.1%, 12.4%, and 12.2%. Net profit attributable to shareholders is projected at RMB 17.67 billion, RMB 20.13 billion, and RMB 22.98 billion, respectively (previous: RMB 16.19 billion, RMB 18.20 billion, NA), corresponding to EPS of RMB 1.57, RMB 1.79, and RMB 2.04 (previous: RMB 1.44, RMB 1.62, NA), representing year-on-year growth of 11.3%, 13.9%, and 14.2%. We assign a 2026E P/E multiple of 35.0x (previous: 40.0x 2025E P/E), deriving a target price of HKD 59.8 (previous: HKD 55.9). We maintain our "Outperform" rating.

Risks. Intensified industry competition, raw material price volatility, food safety risks, and a slower-than-expected consumption recovery.
